

NEWS

Webinar on “Small Satellites, Sustainable Development
Solutions and Business Opportunities”

A Webinar was jointly organized by The Society for Professional Ethics & Management (SPEM) and the JAIN (Deemed-to-be) University on Friday, 19th February, 2021, from 1730 to 1930 hrs. Highly experienced speakers from industry, space organizations and academia spoke on the occasion.

Wg. Cdr. Kiran Krishnan Nair (Retd.)

Former Joint Director (Space Research & Development) and Author of “Small Satellites and Sustainable Development - Solutions in International Space Law”

Dr. C.G. Krishnadas Nair

Former Chairman, HAL. Principal Adviser, JAIN (Deemed to be University)

Prof. K.R. Sridhara Murthi

Hon. Director, International Institute of Space Law. Director (Academics & Planning), Jain (Deemed-to-be University)

Mr. G. Narayanan

CMD, NewSpace India Limited (NSIL) (ISRO, Department of Space)

And

Mr Nayaz Ahmed

COO, JUINCUBATOR, Jain (Deemed-to-be University)

Topics included were ‘Small Satellites Applications and Business Opportunities for Startups’, ‘Small Satellite & Sustainable Development Solutions’, ‘Small Satellite - Emerging issues in Space Law and Regulations: Converging interests and international cooperation’.

At the end there was an interactive discussion, chaired by Mr. G. Narayanan, CMD, NewSpace India Limited (NSIL) (ISRO, Department of Space) and all the speakers. There were over 200 delegates including students, working professionals, and environmentalists in the field of Small Satellite Development and Applications as well as for Students and Faculty in disciplines of Sciences, Engineering and Management, specializing in aerospace engineering, aviation management and seeking to develop careers or entrepreneurship / business start-ups related to the fields. The webinar was well received and appreciated by the gathering.

