

Third Nitte International Conference on Development Challenges: Global Aspirations and Local Realities

December 29-30, 2012

Justice K. S. Hegde Institute of Management Campus, Nitte

Conference Partners :

The School of Social Policy and, University of Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

Erasmus Centre for Strategic Philanthropy, The Netherlands

Ritsumeikan University, Japan

Sub-themes of the Conference:

Following are the sub themes of the Conference-

Millennium Development Goals (MDGs)

- Review of Cross country experiences.
- The role of Business, government and the Voluntary sector in the accomplishment of MDGs.
- MDGs- Expectations and the realities.

Organizational and Leadership Issues

- Cultural issues in redefining excellence in organizations in the context of local ethos and development needs.
- Leadership -global in outlook and sensitivities to local development issues.
- Comparative organizational issues in the areas of inclusive management.

Local Wisdoms

- Sensing local innovations and appreciation of local wisdom.
- Development imperatives and scaling up worthy local practices and means thereof.
- Case studies of local development practices that have lessons for the future - for both the developed and the developing countries.

Change Management

- Organizational innovations and inertia towards change in the development/ allied sectors.
- Institutionalizing change management in the developing world as a prerequisite for development and their enablers in allied sectors.

Institutional Issues

- Changing roles for organizations in different sectors
- Role of standards and benchmarks for organisations in meeting global aspirations and local realities.
- Governance issues in development and mechanisms for checks and balances

Technology

- Harnessing technological advancements for development and local empowerment
- Using technology for participation and inclusivity
- E-governance for development

Higher Education

- Fine tuning higher education for development needs.
- Higher education- global standards and local dimensions.
- Management education for meeting global aspirations.

For Registration contact

Dr. Sudhir M.

Organising Secretary

Third Nitte International Conference

JKSHIM,

Phone : 9945154746

Email : sudhir@jkshim.ac.in or sona-conference@jkshim.ac.in