In addition to key note presentation and lecture demonstration the workshop also included two days Hands-on courses on (i) Auricular Prosthesis and (ii) Nasal Prosthesis. The response to the workshop was over whelming inspite of restricted registration for hands-on participants. Due to high demand 58 participants had to be permitted in hands on courses. This could be possible only due to last minute arrangements made and hard work put by the organising team. In addition to hands on delegates about 30 participants were permitted as observer. Thus the number of active participants touched 90.

Local hospitality arrangements made for delegates as well as for course conductors were excellent and personalised. A sumptuous cocktail dinner was hosted by the Chairman Dr. Ramesh Badlani on first day at Hotel Fortune Landmark immediately after the Special Convocation of PFA India section especially held at Indore. Efforts of the local organising committee patronised by Dr. Ramesh Badlani, Chairman of the institution and chaired by the Dean Dr. P.V. Wanjari with Dr. Vaibhav Awinashe, the convenor. Dr Umesh Palekar, Dr. (Mrs.) Kamal Shigli, Dr. Rajeev Srivastava, Dr. Vivek Choukse, Dr. Shilpi Gupta, Dr. Rahul Shrivastava, Dr. Neeraj Sharma, Dr. Sanjay Sharma, Dr. Atul Patidar and P.G. volunteers deserve special appreciation for the success of workshop.

Overall the workshop was a grand success, well conducted and well organised. Memories of deliberations shall ponder the minds of the participants for a long time.
