Journal of Library Development (JLD)
Vol. 6, No. 1, January 2020

JLD Editorial

JLD's NEW YEAR GREETINGS TO ALL LIS PROFESSIONALS 2020

With the New Year and new beginning JLD, has entered into its sixth year. The vision and mission of JLD is to take the development in Libraries, Library and Information Science and research findings and applications in the form of articles communicated through many old and new creative views. Today new things are being creeping in the field and lot research finding are seen through the Journals, Databases adding to the Library and Information Science Literature. To impart knowledge regarding emerging trends and technologies in libraries and information services like Library Automation, Digitalization, Institutional Repository and Digital Library Services, Consortia based Services, QR Code, EM and RFID implementation, Open Access, Outreach activities are innovative challenges. Ultimatly the role of Libraries and LIS professionals has look into information and knowledge to be preserved and conserved for long lasting use. The Library users are growing and needs are growing with multi-variant form of information are added every day. Preserving them is Library culture and heritage to serve the communities. So, today's information preserved is tomorrow's knowledge needs. Let's us move to the new world with 2020 the year symbolizes strength and fortune, and is auspicious for all new beginnings. It is a time to turn a new leaf and take a fresh look at the world. Hence JLD started a new leaf called "Classics of Library and Information Science", see page 77-78.

- Chief Editor