

POSITIVE THINKING

Heaven of Freedom

While India is celebrating ‘Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav’, on the 75th Anniversary of Independence, Asian Journal of Professional Ethics and Management would like to quote the world-renowned Rabindranath Tagore’s famous prayer fit for people of all Nations.

*“Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high Where knowledge is free;
Where the world has not been broken up into fragments by narrow domestic walls;
Where words come out from the depth of truth;
Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection;
Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way into the dreary desert sand of dead habit;
Where the mind is led forward by thee into ever-widening thought and action
Into that heaven of freedom, my Father, let my country awake.”*

Let us also remember that freedom of an individual, community or Nation should not affect another’s freedom. It must be understood and appreciated that all have equal freedom but should be limited by the golden rule of not affecting freedom of others. Exercise the freedom ethically, keeping this in view, and live in harmony, and peace. This is important and realise that freedom cannot be unlimited as such unrestricted freedom will transform into conflicts, destruction of freedom itself and leading to anarchy. That is why it is said ‘Liberty Seeks its Soul in Voluntary bondage’. This simple fact conveys profoundly the Positive Thinking about enjoying each one’s – Individuals, Communities, Religions and Nations freedom respecting one another’s freedom.
