

BOOK REVIEW

Spiritual Heritage of India and the Great Masters

Author : Mr.G.K.Nambiar

Publisher : Dr.K.P.Gopalakrishna, Founder and Chairman,

Author – Mr.G.K.Nambiar & Mrs.Nambiar

Spiritual Heritage of India and The Great Masters is a treasure house of knowledge with very well researched, comprehensive and illuminating book on the subject. Mr. Nambiar after a brief introduction on what is Sanatana dharma takes the readers through Hindu scriptures Vedas, Upanishads and Gurukul system of education. Concept of temples, idol worship, freedom of worship, freedom of ideas and religious tolerance contained in Sanatana dharma. The author explains the doctrines of Dvaita, Advaita, Visishtadvaita and unity in diversity very beautifully. The book also gives details of contributions of the Rishis through vedas and in particular vedic mathematics, the science of cloning, understanding of time, concept of zero and infinity, freedom for women, concept of God, Prakriti and Maya (illusion) theory. `Evolution of Arshasamskara is explained through stories of saptarishis and several other sages - Agastya to Viswamithra and several other sages of Vedic period. The author has very thoughtfully included the spiritual luminaries of modern India as well as social reformers who were spiritually motivated, and great poets who propagated Bhakti Marga. While writing about spiritual heritage of India, author has also included brief and illuminating articles of other faiths originated in India such as Jainism, Buddhism, Sikhism, and comparatively more recent Theo-physical society and Brahma Kumaris. It is a great book to read and learn and cherish keeping a copy to read again.

Author Shri.G.K.Nambiar after a long period of distinguished service in the Corporate world as an industry leader and manager turned to reading, researching and writing. It is highly commendable, and it is fortunate for all knowledge seeking readers that he devoted his time to write on religious, spiritual and philosophical subjects and on art and culture. The book is the result of his intensive reading and research into India's ancient heritage of more than 5000 years old civilization. It is a great contribution to the current and future generations for reading and understanding not only the spiritual and cultural heritage of India and about the Rishis and Sages but also of the universal tolerance and harmony among all and concept of World as one family; “Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam”.

This great work of Shri.G.K.Nambiar was published because of the initiative and support by a great philanthropist. Dr.K.P.Gopalakrishna, founder and Chairman of Nationally and Internationally well known NPS Group of Educational Institutions and Dr.K.Shanthama his wife and co-founder of the institution.

The first edition (present issue) is for free distribution to Schools, Colleges, Libraries and Institutions. Anybody interested in further publishing this book, may get in touch with the author.

Contact No. Ph : 080-25346151/ Mob # 886106462 /9845533926

E-mail : vnambiar2@gmail.com

*“Mistakes, Failures, Insult, Frustration and Rejections” are Part of Progress and Growth,
No body ever Achieved anything Worthwhile without Facing these five things.*